Help improve the birth families' quality of life through a better nutrition, health, technical and formal schooling.